

Northern Exposure Trail -Adventure Ride

21 to 24 April 2012 - 4 full days

The Yamaha Northern Exposure Trail Ride is a fully guided and catered multi day trail ride.

Group size is limited to 18 riders who want to experience the excitement and enjoyment of riding the huge variety of terrain. Many of the trails are on privately owned land and not usually accessible to the public.

The trail ride covers a large percentage of the 'real' Far North: wild, west coast farmland and beaches; 90 mile beach and nearby forestry; central region native bush clad hills; and the scenic bays of the east coast region. The terrain includes rocky coastlines, sandy beaches, forest trails, farm tracks, open grass paddocks, slippery clay tracks ☺, and loads more.

Britton Motorcycle Adventures have been organising off-road motorcycle events in the Far North since 1992. We lived in the Far North for 17 years and know where the best off-road riding can be found.

This is not a budget 'roughing it' trail ride, our accommodation is in comfortable beach houses at Taipa Bay - Northland . Meals are gourmet affairs, and each day starts with a full cooked breakfast to ensure you have enough energy for the adventurous day ahead!
